A unique gender-neutral property to appeal teens
adults and children alike

Synopsis

The Monchhichi Tribe is a community of brave friends whose mission in life is to create dreams for children across the world and act as “sleep custodians”. Through creativity and teamwork, the Monchhichi Tribe always triumph over those who want to have more dreams for themselves.

Know more about Monchhichi

The Monchhichi Tribe was born as a stuffed toy released by Sekiguchi in 1974 in Japan. Since then, over 100 million dolls have been sold, and the brand has engaged 3 generations of fans.

Recently Monchhichi has been refreshed with a high quality CGI TV series produced by Technicolor which style complements the retro look of the '70.
